Hi Eva

We received this report last month and I'm realizing you did not get a copy. I've reviewed it but am waiting input from the project hydrogeologist. I had proposed no further source control action for groundwater a while back, but EPA raised some concerns due to manganese concentrations. There has been some discussion of modifying the approach to evaluating Mn which will likely impact this evaluation as well. If you don't have all the correspondence on the previous evaluation (NFA proposal, EPA comments, DEQ responses), let me know and I can provide. Here's a link to the latest data: ftp://deqftp2.deq.state.or.us/jsutter\2015-08-06_GW_Sampling_Report.pdf

See you next week.
